

Boho Beach Hut

The owners of Boho Beach Hut built their business on the basic principles of trust and quality. They are a family-owned and operated business in the Reno, Tahoe, area. They represent a Boho-stylish look, without breaking your pocketbook. Boho Beach Hut understands that its customers work hard for their money and want to buy quality products at a great price while representing their creative and individual look.

“Logical Position and the SEO team have helped our website sales more than any other sources of advertising or paid traffic has. Since using LP for SEO, our direct and organic traffic ad sales have risen excessively. You don’t realize how important a strong SEO campaign is to your company until you notice over 65% of your total sales come from your LP SEO team. If you are struggling to find more sales and direct traffic sales without paying advertising fees, you need to hire Logical Position.”

-Julie Reasoner, co-owner of Boho Beach Hut
